Office of General Counsel

Security for Contractors

1. Paragraph 4.5. a. of the memorandum on Special Security Inspection of the [redacted] dated 8 September 1949, contains the recommendation that contractors awarded classified CIA work be thoroughly indoctrinated in CIA Security Regulations as appropriate, and that such Regulations be incorporated in the contract. It is assumed that the necessary security regulations have been prepared by your office for the instruction of contractors. They can be incorporated by reference in any classified contract if you so desire.
